The building pictured here is the storage house where our bulbs are kept through the winter. It is a 32-foot by 50-foot building, well insulated; and heated by an oil-burning forced air system. The temperature is held at 38 to 40 degrees through the winter and spring season and that is the best thrip-control we know anything about. All bulbs are dried and cured out of doors as much as possible, during the digging season. All bulbs are hand cleaned and graded and State inspected before shipping to you.

ARE YOU A MEMBER OF North American Gladiolus Council?

The council is a comparatively new organization comprising more than a thousand Gladiolus Fanciers and commercial growers with membership from coast to coast, and in Canada. They publish a very fine quarterly magazine, filled with many fine articles relative to Glads; and is very helpful in keeping the average grower familiar with the better varieties to grow for show purposes as well as for florist and home uses. It also carries advertising from most of the best growers of the country.

We will send without charge a dozen fine bulbs, our selection, to anyone for a $1.00 subscription to the Council Magazine, or it may be mailed direct to C. D. Fortnam, Tyler Hill, Penn., or to Thomas Manley, Secretary, Oglebay Park, Wheeling, W. Va.

Greetings and Thanks

We cannot start a new catalogue out without a word of greeting to the many customers who have patronized us in years past. To those hundreds of good folks we say thank you—and we hope we will hear from all of you again this year. If you have a complaint—or a compliment—let us hear about it. We are always happy to adjust any complaint; and we all like to hear something nice about ourselves—don't we? Our growing season was a little on the dry side, although we did manage to irrigate a good portion of our better glads—and September rains brought the bulbs along in very good shape. We try to always be generous in filling orders, and to supply extra things without charge in the hope that folks will find a new thrill in a new flower, just like we do. We like to have letters from our customers about glads—and enjoy answering them. If we can help anyone to grow better flowers, we feel that it is time well spent.

Our Nursery is located 1½ miles north-east of Sioux City on Highway No. 75, and visitors are always welcome. We will have several thousand seedlings blooming in late August and September, and maybe you can help us pick out a winner! Drive out and see us.

Read This Before Buying Your Bulbs

Growing good gladiolus blooms is not exactly an easy task. They appreciate and require good culture and care. In the first place, if you purchase bulbs before planting time, they should be stored in a dry place, as cool as possible above freezing temperatures. About the time the trees get their leaves they should be planted, but before planting they should be dipped in an antiseptic solution to insure them against disease and thrip; the latter is a destructive insect. We dip ours in Lysol, one ounce to three gallons of water, allowing them to soak over night just before planting. When the plants are six to eight inches high we spray them with a spray of Tartar Emetic, one ounce to three gallons of water with half a pound of brown sugar to the three-gallon mixture. This sweetens it and causes the spray to adhere to the plants. If they are sprayed once a week you are sure to have good blooms. We sometimes spray three times, four days apart, just before blooming starts, and that usually wipes them out as their life cycle is about ten days. Six weeks after blooming your bulbs may be dug and stored as above directed. We try to keep our storage house at about 40 degrees for about six or eight weeks during the winter, which is supposed to destroy any thrip or their eggs. We have not seen any living thrip in our storage house.

Performance of Varieties

Summer of 1947

One swallow does not make a summer. Growing a Glad in our fields for one year does not prove that it is a world-beater or a bum. We did find several of the newer Glads to be very fine and give a fine performance in our soil the first season we have grown them. Among those we grew for the first time, the following left a good impression on our minds: Beauty's Blush was excellent, and should go on to become a fine commercial as well as show variety. A staunch, vigorous grower and stood our extreme heat very well. Another grand number is Orange Gold. We had a few large bulbs, and a couple of hundred No. 5 bulbs. We cut fine spikes from almost every bulb planted. It may be a bit plain, but the color is out-standing, and calls to you to "Come and cut" and put in a vase where it opens up in grand shape. The few thousand bulblets we had germinated and made better than average growth. Trocadero is another lovely glad, with a carrot-color that is very fine for florist use. We planted Spotlight in quantity for the first time, and it appears to be a coming commercial variety. In its second season with us, Huntress again proved to be a good doer in a tough year. The few hundred bulblets we planted after cracking, made mostly No. 2 bulbs, and very fine bulbs, too. Daisy Mae (planted very late) was a high-light for September blooms, and we are going to stock up on that one. Another first-year surprise was Rosy Light from Milton Jack's garden. It seems to be one of the most beautiful of the newer numbers. We are buying more. Van Gold was going fine, but burned a little in our 100-degree weather.

Some of the older varieties that stood the heat well and produced excellent bulbs were: Magnolia, Ethel Cave Cole, Badger Beauty, Golden Teton, Mother Kadel, Marg. Beaton, Blue Beauty, Autumn Gold, Red Charm, Kenwood, Birch Red, Rosy Red, Buckeye Bronze, Wings of Song, Leading Lady, Miss Wisconsin, Valeria, Elizabeth the Queen and others. Purple Supreme, Stoplight, Algonquin, Picardy, and a few others showed some disease virus in the bulbs, probably due to our hot dry season.

We saw Carl Fischer cutting fine blooms from Beauty's Blush grown from No. 6 bulbs, on September 23rd; and that glad really can get a spike up there from small bulbs. We hope Wedgewood and White Christmas will do just as well. Mr. Fischer tries them a long time before naming them. We wish all originators would do as well. We like to try new ones from everywhere, however, and expect to keep on maintaining a trial garden. We probably will pay $10 per bulb for a few again this year. Hope we get young bulbs!

HOW OLD ARE THEY?

Says Robin to Richard, if I ever come
To the age you are now, Brother mine,
Our ages united will amount to a sum,
Of years, making ninety and nine.

you were

WHY BUY JUMBO BULBS?

Some small garden growers seem to want us to furnish the largest bulb we can grow, when they purchase large, or No. 1 bulbs. By far the largest number of blooms we sell are grown from No. 4 bulbs, or smaller. We grow thousands of fine blooms from No. 5 bulbs, $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{5}{8}$ inch in size. Of course we try to cultivate and water well. Some varieties will do better from No. 4 or 5 than others. However, most any variety will produce acceptable blooms from No. 4 bulbs with average culture. Most jumbo bulbs will grow 2 or more buds, and they will then produce only average spikes. A good husky No. 3 bulb is ideal, in our soil. Of course a well grown spike from No. 1 or 2 bulb should produce maximum bloom.

The Measure of Success

When sunset falls upon your day and fades from out the west, when business cares are put away and you lie down to rest, the measure of the day's success or failure may be told in terms of human happiness, and not in terms of gold.

Is there beside some hearth tonight more joy because you wrought? Does someone face the bitter fight with courage you have taught? Is something added to the store of human happiness? If so, the day that now is o'er has been a real success.

He is also the President of the local Barbershop Quartet Society Chapter; and sings in a group from that organization. Pictured here are the 'WIGMANAIRES.' It all started as a three-some at one of the local clubs. They sang their songs wherever they met, and then "along came Charley," and after two years of it—they still have fun.

We could have included such fine numbers as Daisy Mae, Badger Beauty, Ethel Cave Cole, Autumn Gold, Beauty's Blush, Connecticut Yankee, Elizabeth the Queen, Valeria, White Gold, Lavender and Gold, Van Gold, Margaret Beaton, Francis M. Irwin, Mother Kadel, and a dozen others, so why try to select a "Top 12," except to sort of guide our customers the direction we believe best. We probably grow about 150 varieties, which is 100 too many when you have three million to keep straight in the storage house, and at planting time. We love them all, however, and how hard it was to give up Aladdin and Peggy Lou! They were a great pair of girls a few years ago. How they thrilled us then! We expect to buy forty or fifty new things for our trial garden this season—so come on in and see what they look like. We will also have four or five thousand new seedlings to fool with, from about 60 crosses.

A lot of thrills lurking in those small bulbs.

THE HOBBY NURSERY

Our Nursery first was started 15 years ago by the purchase of two pounds of Juniper seed, which we tried to grow. After three seasons we were successful with evergreen seed. We then purchased a hundred Gladiolus bulbs—and look at the farm now! We try in our humble way to give this catalogue a family touch—a human interest story, and your purchases will determine if we succeed in that.

B. H. & G. COLLECTION

Some of our customers may notice that we are advertising in Better Homes & Gardens Magazine, and we want everyone to have advantage of that offer, if they care to do so, so we place the same "ad" here in our catalogue.
